

The South Coast Writers Centre is offering 12 special sponsor advertising packages for professional service providers associated with the writing industry.

Over the course of the year, sponsors will:

- have their logo and website link on a FEATURED BANNER on eight SCWC newsletters sent to 1500+ subscribers (see attached example of newsletter with footer banner),
- appear in two special SPONSOR eDMs featuring your business blurb, photo/logo & website link, sent to 1500+ subscribers,
- receive one dedicated & BOOSTED SOCIAL MEDIA POST featuring your business blurb, photo/logo & website link,
- have your business blurb, photo/logo & website link featured all year on our SPONSORS WEBPAGE (25k visits and 18k unique visitors annually).

This sponsorship will help support the SCWC community writing programs. It is part of our Plus1 fundraising campaign in which all funds raised are matched by Creative Partnerships Australia.

Hi there,

What a month November has been! We held our fantastic nonfiction festival, True Story, in a sold-out Coledale Hall to rave reviews. Scroll on to read more and stay tuned for a full festival wrap-up coming soon.

The end of the year doesn't mean an end to SCWC events! We have our last Film Club of 2023 this weekend, an info night for our Screenwriting Program on 7 December, and our End of Year Celebration, featuring a members' open mic, on 16 December.

In 2024, an exciting calendar of workshops has already been confirmed, including our six-month First Time Fiction course. Places for all our workshops are limited so book your tickets now.

And don't forget to apply for the great opportunities currently available! Applications for the Nan Tien Residency close 14 December and submissions for the 2023/24 anthology Chroma close 7 January.

Our Screenwriting Program and Bundanon Group Writers Residency are also open to applicants.

Keep scrolling for more events and opportunities coming up.
